

NANCY GENN WATERFALLS

In her consummate six-decade work as painter and sculptor, Nancy Genn has navigated and bridged the realms of realism and abstraction, the tradition and praxis of Western and Eastern art, as well as stability and flux, and spontaneity and meditation. Her recent series of Waterfalls are in line with the proximity to water of this San Franciscan artist who stated that "Water in all its forms has always been a central source of imagery in my work and centering presence in my work." So has the process of layering in her paintings as witnessed in this series of pictures of Waterfalls. Like the natural phenomena they are rhythmic movements of and color and light.
